

I am very hopeful that the FCC will step in to keep Sinclair Broadcasting from forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary ever, let alone days before the election. While I am a Kerry supporter, I would frown as much on such a documentary on Bush. This is not what our media should be doing. It is certainly not in the public interest, nor is it responsible stewardship of the airwaves.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
